My mills are working day and night and will prepare all orders promptly and to the complete satisfaction of my customers. This is one of the finest and best equipped mills in the west, and grinds the finest flour. I pay the highest market prices in my elevator in Hays City for wheat and am always ready to provide my customers with flour of every variety, bran and all other products my mill can prepare.

Respectfully

I present myself to the public and to the farmers in general as an experienced blacksmith, and I am always ready to practice the arts of my trade with punctuality and careful workmanship. Since I employ no assistants and perform all work myself, I can guarantee the finest work at the lowest prices. I speak German and English. Everyone should speak with me and convince himself (of my ability).
